Golf Course Overview

Located in the heart of Phoenix, yet secluded in a valley of craggy hillside and desert landscape, the Arizona Biltmore Golf Club is located just minutes north of downtown Phoenix. Its two championship courses – The Links and The Adobe – are living proof that the golf in Phoenix/Scottsdale area does not necessarily require that long and laborious drive to the outskirts of town.

The club sits in the shadows of Piastawa Peak, one of Phoenix's most impressive summits. The Biltmore neighborhood is a centerpiece to corporate Phoenix, not to mention a heartbeat away from world class shopping and dining. Here, one can feel a part of the action, yet a world apart when it comes to focusing on the game. Our two 18-hole courses are set up for challenging play, yet enjoyable experience.

Links Course

The younger of the Biltmore family. Smart, fresh and a bit wild. This celebrated layout marked the renaissance of the Arizona Biltmore, creating new neighborhoods and open spaces surrounding the original grounds of the Arizona Biltmore Resort.

The Links Course sports rolling fairways, desert ravines and five lakes. Taking a cue from the seaside links courses of the British Isles, the bunkers are deep and set tight to greens. And, from atop the 15th tee, one can see the skyline of Phoenix, Scottsdale and distant mountains.

A combination of desert golf mixed with a journey through cool pines and tranquil lakes. Here you will find no two holes are alike - and no two days will ever play the same. Multiple tees, combined with large greens, creates endless possibilities for course set-up and change. The Links is about strategy and shot-making - heroic shots and demanding accuracy.

Hospitality

At the heart of the world renowned Arizona Biltmore Resort, is a golf club which has stood the test of time. With fairways set among desert ravines, towering shade trees and winding through stately grounds, the setting is unique to all of Phoenix.

With a commitment to service and tradition as stately as the Frank Lloyd Wright architecture within its midst, memories of your time here will stay with you for years to come.

Welcome to the legendary Arizona Golf Club. The Phoenix golf destination which has beckoned U.S. Presidents and world leaders, and continues to welcome visitors and executives, whether for a casual game or a demanding tournament.
